

Mountain View College
Fall 2009 Credit Student Enrollment Change Analysis
September 28, 2009
Executive Summary

The Fall 2009 census headcount of 8,201 students sets a new record high enrollment for Mountain View College. This is 15% (1,056) more students than Fall 2008, and the fourth record breaking enrollment since Fall 2006.

Unduplicated Student Headcount Highlights

- All ethnic groups increased in number. The largest percentage increases were Asian students who increased 29% (+92), and Black students who increased 26% (+472)
- Students in age group 26-30 years increased 30% (+250) over Fall 2008, followed by 51 years and older increasing 24%, and 41-45 years increasing 21%
- Full-time students increased to 26% of all students in Fall 2009
- First-Time-in-College (FTIC) students number 1,183 (86 more than Fall 2008)
- 43.2% (3,541) of Fall 2009 students returned from the Spring 2009 semester compared to 42.6% returning in Fall 2008 and 42.1% in Fall 2007
 - 49% of Fall 2009 Hispanic and Asian students returned from the Spring 2009 semester compared to 39% of White students and 36% of Black students returning
- Undecided majors who make up 46% (3,737) of all students, and Liberal Arts and Sciences majors who make up 36% (2,927) are the only two groups that increased over Fall 2008. All other majors decreased and collectively equal 18%
- The top five high schools in terms of recent graduates enrolled at MVC are South Grand Prairie, Duncanville, Moises Molina, Sunset, and Grand Prairie
- Total students (not including dual-credit) receiving financial aid increased 21% from 1,402 to 1,689 individual students. An additional 771 students received dual credit or ECHS waivers
 - These 2,460 individual students are collectively receiving 3,110 awards that total $3,369,765 in financial aid
 - The largest increases were in Federal Pell Grants; Texas Grants, and dual credit and ECHS tuition waivers
- Students residing in MVC service area ZIP codes make up 73% of the student body
 - Students residing in Duncanville increased 53% (+287) over Fall 2008, followed by Dallas service area ZIP codes +15%, Grand Prairie +8%, and Cedar Hill +6%

Fall 2009 Credit Student Enrollment Change Analysis
September 28, 2009
Executive Summary (continued)

Duplicated Student Course Enrollments Highlights

As of census day Fall 2009, there were 20,041 duplicated student course enrollments. This is 13% (2,274) higher than in Fall 2008 at census day.

Schedule Type:

- The following schedule types account for 100% of MVC's student course enrollments
 - Weekday mornings – 42%
 - Weekday evenings – 22%
 - Weekday afternoons – 12%
 - Online – 12%
 - Dual Credit – 5%
 - Weekend – 3%
 - Self Paced – 3%
 - Hybrid – 1%

Instructional Division:

- All Instructional Divisions are teaching more student course enrollments than they did in Fall 2008
 - Business, Computer Science, and Mathematics Division courses are experiencing the greatest growth +1,125 enrollments (+22%). The division's courses also make up 31% of the total course enrollments
 - Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences Division comprise 29%
 - Communications and Teacher Education Division – 25%
 - Science, Allied Health, and Physical Education Division – 11%
 - HDEV courses 4%
 - MATH courses increased the most with 600 more enrollments, followed by: HDEV courses +370; CIT and ENGL courses increased 290 enrollments each; PSYC +180; and CHEM +150